

Membership Application

By joining Americans for Community Development you will be part of a national movement to create L<sup>3</sup>Cs and similar international organizational structures which use for profits to achieve socially beneficial objectives. ACD will provide training, support, educational material, certification and assistance to those who have formed L<sup>3</sup>Cs, those who are contemplating forming one, professionals who are working in the field, economic development officials, educators and students and anyone else interested in L<sup>3</sup>Cs. Americans for Community Development is a private, non-equity organization.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

1. Members are identified on the public membership list on our website.
2. We will be organizing Seminars, Training Programs, Certification Programs, and Webinars on many subjects related to the L<sup>3</sup>C. Members receive discounts for these programs.
3. Reduced advertising rates.
4. Members who are professionals are able to buy their own web pages on our website.
5. Members can attend the ACD Annual Conference at discounted rates.
6. Members receive timely and regular updates on key L<sup>3</sup>C issues.
7. Members can receive support for Legislative initiatives in their states.
8. Members receive up-to-date information regarding federal Legislation to facilitate organizing and financing L<sup>3</sup>Cs.
9. Members have access to model governance documents and Best Practices and Guidelines Publications.
10. Members can participate in Working Groups.
11. Tools for making presentations.
12. Members will be able to use the ACD Member Logo (shown below) on all of their print and web documents.

It is our intention to continue to expand the range of services to constantly make membership more valuable. We hope that as you become members you will help us by suggesting additional services you would like.
